

3 Writing

3.1 Language Components

Mark the correct option.

Things that have been banned at schools

Every school worldwide has its own school rules.

Maybe some of their them they will surprise you. Some years ago, for example, hug schools in Florida put a ban on hugged hugging on school floors to respect personal space between students. There's a debate about the best possible schoolbag for kids, but one school in Michigan doesn't don't wasn't allow bags into classrooms at all.

Milk has always been part of a health healthily healthy school lunch.

Some people in the US which who whose are vegans are pushing a petition to get rid of milk in schools.

One school in New York even forbade the students to go to school by off with made bike or skateboard. A school in Toronto make makes headlines last year when it banned hard balls from schoolyards and playgrounds.