

Englisch Klasse 7a und 7c – LÖSUNGEN 20.04.2020

Liebe Schüler,

ich hoffe, es geht euch gut und ihr kommt zurecht mit der erzwungenen unterrichtsfreien Zeit!

Leider habe ich jetzt erst bemerkt, dass ich in der letzten Woche bei der Aufgabe zu „Text comprehension and writing“ bei „young sportsmen“ die Seiten im Buch bzw. Arbeitsheft nicht angegeben hatte. Diese nun hier:

TB p. 62 or WB p. 41. Dementsprechend gebe ich die Musterlösungen für diese Aufgabe erst nächste Woche heraus. Entschuldigt das Versehen!

Sollte es mal wieder Probleme mit den Aufgaben oder andere Fragen geben, könnt ihr mich per E-Mail kontaktieren: alexandragathen@gmail.com.

Liebe Grüße, Frau Gathen

Grammar

if-sentences:

1. If I don't learn my English vocabulary by tomorrow, then my teacher will be very cross.
2. If I let you have a ride on my bike, you'll let me have a ride on your bike?
3. We won't go ice-skating tomorrow if you don't behave yourselves.
4. If I only go window-shopping this afternoon, I won't spend any money.
5. The children will tidy up the kitchen today if we ask them nicely.
6. If we visit the Tower of London on a Saturday morning, it will be full of people.
7. I'll have your ice-cream if you don't want it.
8. I'll go to Lucy's party if you go with me.
9. I'll buy a great present for my mum if I go shopping this afternoon.
10. If I have enough time, I'll check your homework for you.

Zur Erinnerung: Im if-Teil des Satzes darf nie ein will/'ll/won't stehen!

Text comprehension and writing

Should there be more school sport?

TB p. 69 / 7a, b:

Kelly: She doesn't want to change the number of PE lessons.

Jordan: He wants to have less school sport.

Evie: She thinks that sport lessons are important. So, she wants more school sport.

for more sport	against more sport
- be active and strong	- boring
- stay healthy and fit	- no option to choose
- find out strengths	- not individual
- try your best in something	- bad feelings because of observation

Eure eigenen Kommentare sind sehr individuell. Diese werden wir besprechen, wenn wir uns wieder in der Schule sehen.

Reading and Listening

WB p. 42 / 18 a:

18 Is there too much football on TV? (1)

a)  READING Do Lily's friends agree or disagree with her?
Read what they say and write the missing word: agree or disagree.

I think there's too much football on TV!

I agree . There are lots of other exciting sports – I'd like to watch them.

I disagree with Lily. Football is brilliant, and the matches are really exciting!

I disagree . I think football is very popular.

I agree with Lily. Footballers aren't always good role models.

I disagree . Families can watch football together on TV – that's nice.

I agree with Lily. I don't like football – the fans often fight.

I agree . The players are sometimes a bit violent.

I disagree with Lily. Kids watch football and want to take up sport – that's good!

I agree with Lily. Lots of people just sit at home and watch football – they should go out and do a sport.

I disagree . It's good that you can watch it on TV because entry to matches costs a lot.

WB p. 43 / 19 a:

19 Is there too much football on TV? (2)

 a) LISTENING Listen to this discussion and write the missing words.

¹² You can listen three times.

Amy ____ Do you think there's too much football on TV at the moment?

Joe ____ No, I don't. It's true – there is quite a lot of football on TV, but not too much.

Everyone likes football.

Ali ____ That's rubbish. Lots of people think football is boring . What do you think, Amy?

Amy ____ Well, on the one hand, entry to football matches is expensive , so some people can't go, but they can watch it on TV. That's good. But on the other hand, there are lots of other exciting sports. For example, I'd like to watch more boxing on TV.

Ali ____ I'm not so sure about that! It's too violent.

Kayla ____ That's rubbish! And anyway, football players can be violent – they aren't good role models .

Ali ____ Maybe you're right.

Joe ____ I disagree. I think footballers are hardworking. They do lots of training. And secondly, I think football is great because everyone can play. Kids watch it on TV, then they go out and play football in the street. It's free and it's healthy !
