Oder I'd like to meet Tim because he sounds like my little brother. Oder I'd like to meet Andi because he's from Stuttgart.

Pictures from California

1) This is the Walk of Fame in Hollywood. Hollywood is a part of Los Angeles. Very famous people who are part of the film and music industry get their name on a star. It's a monument.

2) Chinatown is a part of San Francisco. Many Chinese people came to San Francisco and they wanted to live together. When you're in Chinatown, you think you're in China. San Francisco has the biggest Chinatown in the world.

3) This picture shows the Golden Gate Bridge. It's the most famous bridge in the world. It's not golden but orange, but there's often fog in San Francisco so then it looks grey.

4) Here you see the Mojave Desert (say „mo-ha-vi“). It's in the southeast of California, close to the Mexican border. California has a lot of forest and green fields but also deserts like the Mojave desert.
