Are the sentences 21–27 'Right' (A) or 'Wrong' (B)?

If there is not enough information to answer 'Right' (A) or 'Wrong' (B), choose 'Doesn't say' (C).

For questions 21–27, mark A, B or C on your answer sheet.

When I was a child of about 11 years I watched a serial on TV which I found very exciting. It was a detective story set in a small Norwegian village in winter. Three children were watching a young man and his girlfriend who had moved to the village not long ago. Nobody knew why the strangers had come to the village or what they were doing during the day.

When it got dark they walked around and often went to the ruins of an old factory a few miles outside the village. The children had sometimes seen them there and wanted to find out what the young man and woman were looking for.

I can still remember some of the most exciting black and white scenes of the two or three parts I watched. However, I missed the last two parts of the film and never found out how it ended. I looked in all the TV magazines and hoped to find the serial. After some time I gave up and never heard anything about it for the next 30 years.

But, what a surprise when I started my computer last week! There was an advertisement for the film, which is now available on DVD! I immediately ordered it online and now I can't wait to find out how the story ends!

Example:

0. The writer watched some parts of the serial when she was about 11 years old.

A Right

B Wrong

C Doesn't say

21. The writer saw the film at the cinema.
